FOUNDATION: 35 MIN PAPER
INCLUDING 5 MINUTES PREPARATION
(+25% EXTRA TIME)
HIGHER: 45 MIN PAPER INCLUDING 5
MINUTES PREPARATION TIME (+25%
EXTRA TIME)

THE PURPOSE OF THE PAPER

Identify overall message, key points, details and opinions from a variety of spoken texts – long and short, involving speakers in public and social settings.

YOU HAVE 5 MINUTES READING TIME BEFORE THE TEST STARTS: USE THIS CAREFULLY!

- use this time to annotate your paper
- read the headings to get the context of the question
- note the format of the question – is it multiple choice/match up/gap fill..?
- note the number of marks for each answer.
- note key words – write any words associated with pictures
- translate any Spanish words and English words
- predict what you will hear

FOUNDATION:

25% of GCSE. Total Marks: 50
Section A: Q & A in English/multiple-response and short-answer response. 40 Marks
Section B: Q & A in target language of multiple response type. 10 Marks

HIGHER

25% of GCSE. Total Marks: 50
Section A: 2 questions – multiple response. Q & A in target language. 10 Marks
Section B: 12 questions – multiple response and short-response. Q & A in English. 40 Marks

During the test you will hear each extract twice.

Listen carefully to the examples to ensure you understand how to answer each question.

Use the time between questions to continue to check your answers – don't assume that the first thing you hear is the answer to the question.

Ensure the answer matches the format requested : e.g if it asks for a letter don't write a number or if the question is in English don't answer in Spanish and if the question is in Spanish don't answer in English.

Narrow down your options as far as you can and then make a calculated/educated guess!

e.g : what are the shoes made of? – if you didn't understand the answer make an educated guess – what are shoes usually made of?

Do not leave any blanks!! use your common sense and make an educated guess.

on the multiple choice questions confirm your answer after the second hearing of the extract. on the first hearing just make a little mark next to your answer or if it's a question with names just write the first letter of the name.

Be careful the exam will contain distractors to try to catch you out. for example the question might be "what type of films does Juan prefer? in his answer he might say " me gustan las comedias pero prefiero peliculas de horror"

In this case be careful not to choose comedies because it's the first thing you hear!

listen to the full answer before you make your decision.

TIPS - VOCAB AND GRAMMAR

- Use cognates and near cognates:
Ex: Importante / important
- Using prefixes
re - / re - (reheat = recalentar)
- Using suffixes
-bilidad / - bility (probabilidad = probability)
- Make use of your grammar knowledge:
  - Pronouns* (ex: yo = I)
  - Prepositions* (ex: entre = between)
  - Verb endings* ( remember, they will tell you who and when the action is taking place)
- Watch out for false friends
Ex: Librería = ~~library~~ = book shop

TIPS!

Read instructions carefully!

Maximise your 5 minutes reading time by:

- Underlining or highlighting key words
- Reading instructions carefully
- Paying attention to questions that have two parts to be answered from the same extract.

Listen carefully to the whole extract. Don't base your answer on the first thing you hear.

Try to answer every question. It's better to attempt questions than leave a gap, especially multiple choice questions.

Look carefully at the specific information the question asks for – use any examples provided

If the questions ask for one reason or one detail only give one

Don't give up if you come across a difficult question!

Read the whole sentence to get all the relevant information - for example if you think the answer is 'P' (positive), read on to make sure that the correct answer is not in fact 'P and N' (positive and negative).

Leave yourself enough time to complete the translation - manage your time across the different sections of the paper.
